1. Each candidate does not have any special interest in the Company.
 2. Messrs. Kazuyoshi Yamazaki and Noboru Yamamoto are candidates for outside Corporate Auditors.
 3. The Company has notified the Tokyo Stock Exchange of Mr. Kazuyoshi Yamazaki as Independent Executive stipulated under the regulations of the Tokyo Stock Exchange. If his reappointment is approved, the Company will continue this notification. If the appointment of Mr. Noboru Yamamoto is approved, the Company will notify Tokyo Stock Exchange of him as the same Independent Executive.
 4. The Company has already entered into a liability limitation agreement with Mr. Kazuyoshi Yamazaki, limiting his liabilities as defined in Paragraph 1, Article 423 of the Companies Act to the minimum liability amount specified in the Company's Articles of Incorporation, and if his reappointment is approved, the Company will renew such liability limitation agreement with him. If the appointment of Mr. Noboru Yamamoto is approved, the Company will enter into the same liability limitation agreement with him.

Proposal No. 3: Revision of the Amount of Remuneration of Directors

As of the 14th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 28, 2016, the amount of remuneration for Directors of the Company comprising basic remuneration, bonuses and stock options was approved at not more than JPY 500 million per year (including the remuneration for outside Directors at not more than JPY 100 million per year), and since then these amounts have been maintained.

However, to maximize the Company's corporate value as a true global company in fiercely competitive semiconductor industry, it is proposed that the amount of remuneration of Directors to be revised. In particular, this revision is intended to realize our vision and mission as a global company and improve our performance, through making the level and structure of remuneration of Directors competitive enough as a global semiconductor company, securing global managerial talents who have a great deal of management experiences in global companies, and motivating such talents to their utmost efforts to maximize their potential. The Company proposes to revise the maximum amount of remuneration for Directors (including outside Directors) to not more than JPY 2,000 million per year (including the remuneration for Outside Directors at not more than JPY 400 million per year), taking the level of the amount of remuneration of Directors in the other competitive global semiconductor companies and the possibility of change of Directors' composition into consideration,

The amount of remuneration for Directors shall comprise basic remuneration, bonuses and stock options, but shall not include the compensation which corresponds to their duties as employees of the Company, as before.

The current number of Directors is five (including three outside Directors). If Proposal No. 1 is approved as proposed, the number will be five (including two outside Directors).

Business Report

(For the Period from January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017 (this “Period”))

1. Overview of Operations of the Group

Renesas Group (the “Group”), with some exceptions, implemented a change of the fiscal term in which the fiscal year-end changed from March 31 to December 31, starting from the previous fiscal year. As a result, the previous fiscal year, in which the change in fiscal year-end took place, comprised nine (9) months from April 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016, and the business results listed below are compared with the corresponding period of the previous year (from January 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016).

(1) Business Progress and Results

(i) Overview

The world economy during this Period was led by the solid Western economy, and furthermore was supported by the stable growth in China and the economic recovery in the newly developing countries, and thus showed a growth expansion. The Japanese economy was on a recovery trend overall during this Period, even though the private consumption were weak, continuing the previous period, but corporate capital investment in plant and equipment were recovered.

The semiconductor market, which is the Group's business sector, increased steadily generally in synchronization with the growth of the world economy. In particular, the market for automotive semiconductor devices showed a high growth rate due to the increasing number of semiconductor devices used in cars, in addition to the growth in the number of cars being manufactured. Furthermore, the semiconductor market for industrial and other products, which was supported by the strong demand mainly in the Chinese market, contributed the semiconductor whole market.

Within these business environments, the Group moved forward during this Period by taking advantage of the results of its "Reform Plan", which aimed to win the struggle to survive in the global semiconductor market, with its rapid and extreme changes and competition. In addition, the Group worked together aggressively to achieve three (3) goals: “Expanding and Strengthening of Business Portfolio to Accelerate the Leap from Structural Reforms to the Growth Stage”, “Continuous Optimization of the Manufacturing Structure”, and “Strengthening the Foundation as Global Semiconductor Company” with the aim of achieving drastic growth as a global company and becoming the number one in the focused business sector in the world.

First, with regard to “Expanding and Strengthening of Business Portfolio to Accelerate the Leap from Structural Reforms to the Growth Stage”, continuing the previous period, the Group used both organic approaches (approaches in which the Group expands and strengthens its own existing businesses) and inorganic approaches (approaches in which the Group takes advantages of strategic alliances with other companies or in which the Group purchases other companies) to strategically for focus areas for which the Group can fully exhibit its strengths and achieve the stable and sustainable growth in the global marketplace and invested the Group management resources in these areas. In particular, as an example of efforts based on inorganic approaches, to accelerate the strengthening of its global competitiveness in the automotive and industrial equipment areas etc., which have seen increasingly strong competition in recent years, the Company acquired Intersil Corporation (“Intersil”) which mainly centers on analog semiconductor devices such as power management ICs and high-precision analog ICs etc. and has a business portfolio that complements the Group business. The Group promoted various activities to maximize the synergy at an early stage. The Group engaged in efforts based on organic approaches. As one result of these efforts during this Period, for automobile use, the Group announced the development of “Renesas autonomy™” (Note 1), which is an open, innovative and trusted platform for the onboard information equipment and automated driving solutions. As for this platform, “R-Car”, an SoC (System-on-Chip) for an automotive information system and an ADAS (Advanced Driving Assistant System), and “RH850”, a microcontroller for an automotive control system, were adopted by the automated driving vehicles under development between Toyota Motor Corporation and Denso Corporation for practical application in 2020. In addition, as the shift from gasoline-diesel vehicles to new energy vehicles such as Electric Vehicles (EV) is progressing globally in recent years, the Group established “New Energy Vehicle Solution Center” in China which is expected to lead the spread of new energy vehicles around the world. In addition to that, the Group aggressively built strategic alliances with other companies. In particular, we undertook a joint development with Great Wall Motor Company Limited, a Chinese major automobile manufacturer, and started the alliance with Mahindra & Mahindra, Ltd., an India’s major automobile company and the pioneer of EV, including starting partnerships relating to participation in Mahindra Racing Formula E team as an official technology partner. Next, for industrial use, the Group began to offer “AI Unit Solutions” as the part of “e-AI (embedded-Artificial intelligence)”, that enables to mount the AI (Artificial Intelligence) on the embedded system which is the end of the network of IoT (Internet of Things), which the Group positions as one of its focused technologies, and started the collaboration with SECOM CO., LTD. and other companies for providing services using IoT technology and developing a security infrastructure for providing the cooperation between IoT devices safely. Also, for broad-based use, in addition to promoting highly reliable system solutions by combining general purpose analog semiconductors whose business scale expanded with the acquisition of Intersil and our general-purpose microcontroller, the Group expanded new microcontroller portfolio, and software for high-performance security and wireless connectivity for Renesas Synergy™ (Note 1) platform, a platform for IoT and the embedded device market. In addition to that, the Group provided a technical result that supports high performance and low power consumption, such as high speed reading at the time of operation and super low power consumption under standby condition in prototyping an embedded SRAM (Static Random Access Memory) which adopts SOTB (Silicon-On-Thin-BOX) process technology of 65 nanometer (Note 2) node, and succeeded in large scale operation of flash memory using flash memory cell technology embedded in high performance / high reliability microcomputers of cutting edge 16/14 nanometer generation developed in the previous period.

Next, with regard to “Continuous Optimization of Manufacturing Structure”, continuing from the previous period, in order to satisfy the vigorous demand of our Group's focused products, the Group conducted an investment to add equipment for increasing production and update existing equipment, and also improved the productivity and quality of factories through innovative approach utilizing AI. In addition to that, the Group decided to close the Kochi Factory of Renesas Semiconductor Manufacturing Co., Ltd., a front-end (semiconductor wafer processing) manufacturing facility, by around the end of May 2018, due to the difficulty to maintain profitability.

With regard to “Strengthening the Foundation as Global Semiconductor Company”, in order to make the Group a truly global company, the Company carried out the organization reforms drastically to evolve the Group even further towards “One Global Renesas” to operate as a global organization regardless the region. Specifically, in addition to merging Renesas System Design Co., Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, with the Company, the Company categorized the main businesses of the Group into “Automobile”, “Industrial” and “Broad-based” depending on the use of the products and shifted to three (3) business units that manage the functions of design and development of products and solutions, sales and marketing on a global basis. Also, in order to strengthen the stable supply structure of products, the Company has established the “Supply Chain Management Unit” that integrated production strategy, production and investment management, production instructions, supply chain management related functions of procurements, and, in particular, in order to strengthen our activities in China which is expected to expand growth opportunities, the Company has established the “China Business Unit”. Meanwhile, the major shareholders of the Company have completed selling to foreign and domestic investors their shares of the Company equivalent to approximately 25% of total number of issued shares of the Company. As a result, it is expected that investor base will be expanded and liquidity of the Company’s shares will be improved. Furthermore, to increase awareness of the Group businesses, technologies, and products around the world, the Group held “Renesas DevCon Japan 2017”, our largest private exhibition, in Tokyo, Japan. It was well received by many of our customers and partner companies as to our Group solution.

(Note) 1. Renesas autonomy™ and Renesas Synergy™ are our trademark.

2. nm (nanometer): one (1) nm (nanometer) equals one (1) billionth of a meter.

(ii) Summary of Consolidated Financial Results

Consolidated financial results of the Group for this Period were as follows.

Consolidated Net sales

Consolidated net sales for this Period were 780.3 billion yen, a 22.1% increase year on year. Consolidated sales increased mainly due to dissipation of the impact from the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake that occurred in the same period of the previous year and the continuing weak yen, in addition to sales of Intersil that started to be recorded as part of the Group’s consolidated sales following the completion of the acquisition in February 2017.

Following the completion of the acquisition of Intersil in February 2017, the Company integrated Intersil into its operations and reformed its business organization into three (3) business units in April 2017. The consolidated net sales of the Group are composed of the main product groups, “Automotive,”

“Industrial” and “Broad-based,” three (3) application categories that constitute the main businesses of the Group, and “Other semiconductors,” that constitute the businesses that do not belong to the above three (3) application categories and “Sales from Others” that fit into neither of the above product categories. Sales of respective areas were as follows:

(Automotive Business)

The Automotive business includes the product categories “Automotive control,” comprising semiconductor devices for controlling automobile engines and bodies, and “Automotive information”, comprising semiconductor devices used in automotive information systems such as navigation systems. The Group mainly supplies microcontrollers, analog & power semiconductor devices, and SoC products in each of these categories.

Sales of automotive business for this Period were 407.8 billion yen, an increase of 16.4% year from the same period of the previous year. This is due to increases in sales in both the “Automotive control” and “Automotive information” categories.

(Industrial Business)

The Industrial business includes the product categories “Smart factory”, “Smart home” and “Smart infrastructure” which support the smart society. The Group mainly supplies microcontrollers and SoCs in each of these categories.

Sales of Industrial business for this Period were 217.7 billion yen, an increase of 15.7% year on year. While sales in the “Smart infrastructure” category remained flat, sales in both the “Smart factory” and “Smart home” categories increased driven by strong demand for industrial equipment, including FA (Factory Automation), and air conditioners in China.

(Broad-Based Business)

The Broad-based business targets a wide variety of end-market solutions. In this business, the Group mainly supplies “General-purpose MCUs” and “General-purpose analog semiconductor devices”.

Sales of Broad-based business for this Period were 134.0 billion yen, an increase of 75.1% year on year. While the sales in the “General-purpose MCUs” category remained flat, sales in the “General-purpose analog semiconductor devices” category increased following the Intersil acquisition.

(Other Semiconductors)

Sales of Other semiconductors include production by commissioning and royalties.

Sales of Other semiconductors for this Period were 5.0 billion yen.

(Sales from Others)

Sales from Others include development and production by commissioning conducted at the Group’s design and manufacturing subsidiaries.

Sales from Others for this Period were 15.8 billion yen, a decrease of 13.9% year on year.

Consolidated Operating Income (Loss)

Consolidated operating income for this Period was 78.4 billion yen, an 8.0 billion yen increase year on year. This was mainly due to an increase in net sales despite the reduction from recording of amortization of goodwill arising from the acquisition of Intersil.

Consolidated Ordinary Income (Loss)

Consolidated ordinary income for this Period was 75.3 billion yen, a 14.1 billion yen increase year on year. This was mainly due to an improvement in non-operating income including foreign exchange gains, in addition to an increase in operating income.

Consolidated Net Income (Loss) attributable to shareholders of parent company

Consolidated net income attributable to shareholders of parent company for this Period was 77.2 billion yen, a 22.8 billion yen increase year on year. This was mainly due to an improvement in special income.

As above, the Group recorded a consolidated net income (net income attributable to shareholders of parent company) for this Period, but the Group forewent dividend payment for this Period. The Group will spend the internal reserve on strategic investment opportunities in order to correspond the rapidly environmental changes for surviving global competition, also dealing with improvement for the corporate value to increase shareholders' profit. We will continue to exert our efforts for further improvement of profitability and stabilization of the business toward the resumption of dividends from a long-term perspective. In this regard, we respectfully ask for our shareholders' continuous understanding and support.

(2) Issues to be Addressed by the Group

As indicated in the "1. (1) Business Progress and Results" section, during this Period, the Group, as a result of unified efforts to implement the above-mentioned Reform Plan, achieved double-digit operating margin under the significant increase of net sales compared with the same period of the previous year, bringing the establishment of a stable financial base clearly into view.

Nevertheless, the Group believes that it must make continuous improvements of product mix and maintain further growth and expanded earnings in order to come thrive in the rapidly changing fiercely competitive semiconductor industry and continue to meet the expectations of all stakeholders.

To achieve this goal, the Group will implement efforts of the following themes: "Expanding and Strengthening of Business Portfolio to Accelerate the Leap from Structural Reforms to the Growth Stage" and "Continuous Optimization of the Manufacturing Structure".

(i) Expanding and Strengthening of Business Portfolio to Accelerate the Leap from Structural Reforms to the Growth Stage

In order to make the leap from structural reforms to the growth stage and achieve stable earnings growth, the Group will accelerate efforts to expand and strengthen its business portfolio, through both organic and inorganic approaches, in its focus areas including automotive, industrial, and broad-based, where the Group possesses global strengths and is competitive.

First, efforts based on an organic approach include ongoing efforts to further optimize the business structure, and research and development (R&D), while at the same time to deal with the accelerating changes in the Group's business portfolio and areas of technology development accompanying the acquisition of Intersil. To achieve stable earnings growth in the focus areas, the Group will regularly analyze and evaluate the business environment in terms of markets, customers, competitors, etc., in each of these focus areas. At the same time, the Group will review its business portfolio from the standpoint of competitiveness and profitability, implement selection and concentration of business domains and products, and strengthen efforts to realize products and technologies that support product competitiveness and make possible the realization of platform solutions with high added value. Specifically, the Group will examine its common technologies such as IP (design asset), design technology, and manufacturing technology utilized in various products, taking into account factors such as future necessity, importance, and the Group's technological position, select which common technologies should be focused on, and concentrate management resources on these key shared technologies. Moving forward, the Group will continue to strengthen these efforts in order to maintain and further bolster its solid position in the fiercely competitive global semiconductor market.

With regard to efforts based on an inorganic approach, the Company acquired Intersil during this Period. The Group will maximize synergies by enhancing its product lineup, expanding sales routes while fusing development technologies and products, and by building a global manufacturing system based on the production models of both group companies, and it will exert its efforts to expand and strengthen its business in the focus areas.

(ii) Continuous Optimization of the Manufacturing Structure

The Group has implemented a wide-ranging optimization of its manufacturing structure as part of its Reform Plan mentioned above. Moving forward, the Group will continue to make further improvements to make the production structure more efficient, while also putting in place a flexible production system capable of meeting the requirements of customers worldwide.

Specifically, some of the Group's production facilities continue to operate using equipment or manufacturing processes that are not as efficient as newer equipment. Therefore, moving forward, the Group will continue unceasingly its optimization of the manufacturing structure, with the goal of further improvement in production efficiency and reduced cost.

In addition, due to booming demand for the Group's focus products, in this Period too, the Group invested aggressively, including investment to add equipment and to upgrade existing equipment. Moving forward, the Group will continue capital investment in its facilities to support highly competitive production processes and smart factories, while also outsourcing some production, as it pushes forward with efforts to build a manufacturing structure capable of responding flexibly to customer demand.

(3) Research and Development of the Group

(i) Unveils the Renesas Autonomy™, Open, Innovative and Trusted Platform to Further Extend its Commitment to ADAS and Automated Driving

Vehicles in the autonomous driving era will be required to sense the environment, control the vehicles, and conduct synchronized communications with the cloud. A wide range of technologies is necessary to realize these functions and each technology needs to maintain high reliability to synchronize without any flaws. At the same time, there is a growing demand for total end-to-end solutions as well as technologies.

The Group launched the “Renesas autonomy™” as a new platform, leveraging its long-standing experience, expertise and technology in the automotive market as the leading automotive semiconductor supplier. The “Renesas autonomy™” is an open, innovative and trusted platform for ADAS and automated driving, consisting of the Group’s sustainable and scalable SoC and microcontroller roadmaps. This solution covers end-to-end solutions from secure cloud connectivity and sensing to vehicle control.

This solution includes the high-performance SoC “R-Car” for automotive information systems and ADASes, the microcontroller “RH850” for automotive control systems and other solutions which can be widely used in the future. System developers can make the best use of this solution to develop their products. In addition, this solution includes the various IP cores (Note) such as innovative hardware accelerators which have both high performance and low power consumption, as its technical components. The Group will expand this solution, which consists of these complex technologies, as an open development platform, with over 230 partner companies of the “R-Car Consortium” of the Group.

In addition to that, this solution was adopted by the automated driving vehicles under development between Toyota Motor Corporation and Denso Corporation as wrote in “1. (1) Business Progress and Results” section, and by electric vehicles “Leaf” of Nissan Motor Co., Ltd., and it shows worldwide spread. Also, the Group exhibited the advanced solution with partner companies along with automated and connected cars at CES 2018 held in Las Vegas, USA in January 2018. Many executives of automobile makers and parts makers for the automobile visited such exhibition. It is expected to spread more globally in the future.

The Group has expanded the “Renesas autonomy™” which is an open, innovative and highly reliable automatic driving platform and has increased the speed of development of such systems significantly, and, moving forward, will remain a leader in Automated Driving age.

(Note) IP cores: Any circuit design data which composes a part of LSI (Large-Scale Integrated circuit).

(ii) Developed “e-AI solution” kits that enables the result of deep learning by AI to be embedded in embedded equipment, and, as part of it, realized smart factory utilizing AI by “AI Unit Solution” which started to be provided

The evolution of AI technologies such as machine learning and deep learning has been remarkable in recent years, and the range of application is rapidly expanding from the cloud market mainly focused on the IT field to the embedded system market. It is expected that the development of embedded devices equipped with AI will accelerate not only for software relating to AI but also service robots and associated devices.

Under these circumstances, toward realization of smart society, the Group has focused on “e-AI”, which implements AI technology at the end of the network (endpoint), as one of the focusing technologies and has been working on developing solutions incorporating AI in microcontrollers and microprocessors. As the first step of this solution, we introduced a new function to implement the result of deep learning in the endpoint embedded device in the first time in the industry and started to provide it as “e-AI Solution” without charge.

This solution enabled to connect the development environment, such as “e-AI translator” which converts the result of deep learning to the microcontrollers and microprocessors development environment, with learned AI environment. Accordingly, users can implement AI by implementing various results of learning on our microcontrollers and microprocessors, and introduce new functions and performance on the endpoint embedded device.

In addition to that, the Group has begun to provide “AI Unit Solution” as part of e-AI Solution aiming to realize smart factory utilizing AI. This solution consists of reference design for hardware development called “AI Unit” and software realizing AI processing. By using this solution for production facilities and machines, users can easily realize processes from data collection to processing, analysis, evaluation and judgment in the production process, and enable accurate abnormality detection and predictive maintenance, and improve the productivity greatly.

This solution was developed based on the experience and know-how of demonstration experiment over two (2) years at Naka Factory, our production plant. In this demonstration experiment, the prototype of the AI unit was attached to the semiconductor manufacturing equipment corresponding to the endpoint, we acquired data at a high sampling rate of about twenty (20) times as compared with before, and, by analysis by AI, the accuracy of abnormality detection enhanced six (6) times or more.

Through the provision and strengthening of e-AI Solution, the Group will continue to aim for the realization of a smart society and to propose new solutions that make endpoint facilities and machines easier and more efficient, and will contribute to improve the productivity and quality of factories.

(4) Capital Investment etc. of the Group

During this Period, the amount of capital investment by the Group was 78.5 billion yen on the investment decision basis. This was mainly used with the aim of investment for increasing and renewing the manufacturing equipment at production facilities etc.

(5) Financing Activities of the Group

The Company executed a loan on January 31, 2017 based on the loan agreement entered with main banks such as The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., Mizuho Bank, Ltd., Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited, and Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation relating to the commitment line of 50 billion yen to secure long-term operation funds on September 28, 2016.

In addition, the Company executed a term loan on February 27, 2017 based on the loan agreement entered with main banks to secure funds for acceleration of the growth strategy on October 5, 2016.

As of December 31, 2017, debt with interest of the Group was 229.5 billion yen, a 72.2 billion yen increase from December 31, 2016.

The Company did not issue new shares or corporate bonds in this Period.

	Takeshi Sekine	(i) Mr. Takeshi Sekine attended 16 of 17 Meetings of Board of Directors held during this Period, and mainly from accounting point of view as a certified public accountant, made necessary remarks on finance and accounting procedures so that decisions at the Meetings of Board of Directors were fairly and properly made. (ii) He attended all 14 Meetings of Corporate Auditors held during this Period, and based on his specialized knowledge, experience and deep insight as a certified public accountant, made necessary remarks for ensuring appropriate accounting procedures, etc.

(Note) In addition to the above Meetings of Board of Directors, there were two (2) Written Resolutions pursuant to Article 370 of the Companies Act and Article 24 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, which shall be deemed that the resolution of Meeting of Board of Directors has been made.

(4) Independent Auditors of the Company(i) Independent Auditor's Name: Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC(ii) Remuneration and Other Amounts to be Paid to the Independent Auditors for this Period:

Classification	Amount (in millions of yen)
(i) The total amount of money and other property benefits to be paid by the Company and its subsidiaries to the Independent Auditors	243
(ii) Remuneration and other amounts to be paid by the Company to the Independent Auditors for the services stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Certified Public Accountants Act.	147

- (Note) 1. As a result of getting necessary documents and being reported by the Directors, relevant departments and Independent Auditors as well as studying audit plan for this Period and the previous period, status of actual audit and the appropriateness of the estimated remuneration amount, the Board of Corporate Auditors agreed to the above amount.
2. As there is no explicit distinction in the audit contract (entered into between the Company and the Independent Auditors) between the fees for audits under the Companies Act and the fees for audits based on the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law, and as it is unable to distinguish between these two (2) types of fees, the fees set forth in (ii) above include both of such fees.
3. Five (5) of eight (8) overseas subsidiaries described in "1-(7) Principal Subsidiaries" above were audited by other Independent Auditors.

(iii) Non-Audit Services Rendered by the Independent Auditor

The Company paid the Independent Auditor compensation for advisory, information providing services for planning to adopt International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and issue comfort letter as services other than those under Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Certified Public Accountants Act (Non-Audit Services).

(iv) Policy Regarding Decision to Either Dismiss or Not Reappoint the Independent Auditor

The Board of Corporate Auditors, by unanimous consent, will dismiss the Independent Auditor when confirmed that the Independent Auditor falls under any item of Paragraph 1, Article 340 of the Companies Act. In addition, should anything occur to negatively impact the qualifications or independence of the Independent Auditor, making it unlikely that the Independent Auditor will be able to properly perform an audit, the Board of Corporate Auditors will propose to dismiss or not to reappoint the Independent Auditor at General Meeting of Shareholders.

(v) Business Suspension Order for the Independent Auditor in the past two (2) years

Summary of disciplinary actions to Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC (the "Firm") announced by Financial Services Agency as of December 22, 2015 is as follows.

1. Details of the Actions:
 - Business improvement order (improvement of business management system)

- Suspension from accepting new engagements for three (3) months (from January 1, 2016 to March 31 of the same year)

(5) Systems Necessary to Ensure the Properness of Operations of the Company and Operational Status of these Systems

The Meeting of the Board of Directors made the resolution with respect to the basic policies for the development of systems set forth in Item 6, Paragraph 4, Article 362 of the Companies Act and Paragraphs 1 and 3, Article 100 of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act (the "Internal Control System"). Summaries of those are as follows.

As to the operation status of the Internal Control System during this Period, related important matters were deliberated in the Internal Control Promotion Committee that was held four (4) times with CEO as a chairman and an annual plan of the basic policies and an operational status were monitored and supervised by the Committee. Also, the Group promoted compliance education and, in Japan, carried out CSR Compliance Education for FY 2017 by using IT in August 2017. Further, after confirming that the Internal Control System works effectively based on the evaluation of its operation in the Executive Committee, such results were reported to the Meeting of the Board of Directors.

(i) Systems Necessary to ensure that the execution of duties by Directors, Corporate Officers and employees (hereinafter "Members, etc.") complies with laws and regulations and Articles of Incorporation

- The Directors shall take the lead in complying with the "Renesas Electronics Group CSR Charter" and the "Renesas Electronics Group Code of Conduct" that have been adopted for the purpose of establishing corporate ethics and ensuring compliance with laws and regulations, the Articles of Incorporation and internal rules of the Company by Members, etc. The Directors shall keep the Members, etc. of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, "Renesas Electronics Group") informed of such principles and conduct, and shall have Renesas Electronics Group comply with them.
- The Directors shall stipulate basic matters such as implementation system and educational programs for compliance in “Global Rule for Compliance Management within the Renesas Group”, shall oblige attendees to deliberate and resolve matters regarding compliance at “Internal Control Promotion Committee”, and shall offer training programs and the like for the Renesas Electronics Group to be fully aware of compliance.

- The Directors shall set up “Renesas Electronics Group Hot Line” as internal contact points for Renesas Electronics Group and its business partners to report violations or possible violations of compliance. Furthermore, the Directors shall keep Renesas Electronics Group and its business partners informed that they assure the anonymity of informants upon requests from informants and informants shall never be adversely affected.
- The Directors shall keep away from any antisocial force, shall work closely with external specialized institutions, and shall act resolutely in an organized manner when contacted by it.

(ii) Systems for properly preserving and managing information related to execution of duties by Directors

Pursuant to Article 444, Section 4 of the Companies Act, we have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet, the consolidated statement of operations, the consolidated statement of changes in net assets and the notes to the consolidated financial statements of Renesas Electronics Corporation (the "Company") applicable to the fiscal year from January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for designing and operating such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. The purpose of an audit of the consolidated financial statements is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control, but in making these risk assessments the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and results of operations of Renesas Electronics group, which consisted of the Company and consolidated subsidiaries, applicable to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Conflicts of Interest

We have no interest in the Company which should be disclosed in compliance with the Certified Public Accountants Act.
