Software for floating license management V2.10.00

Jan. 20, 2026

(for Linux/macOS)

Outline

Software for floating license management has been updated from V2.09.00 to V2.10.00 and now supports macOS.

1. Products to Be Updated

Software for floating license management V1.00.00 to V2.09.00 (for Windows)

Software for floating license management V2.08.00 to V2.09.00 (for Linux)

Note: V2.10.00 is available for Linux and macOS. For Windows, please continue to use V2.09.00.

2. Description

The main changes are as follows. Refer to the release note for details.

2.1 Improved license specification method

After displaying a list of registered licenses (--list), when displaying detailed information about a specific license (--detail) or deleting a license key (--delete), you must manually enter the license key.

However, an interactive mode option (--interactive) has been added that allows you to specify the serial number instead of the license key when displaying details or deleting.

For details, please refer to the user's manual for Linux/macOS.

2.2 Support macOS

Now supports macOS. Use it in the terminal.

For details, please refer to the user's manual for Linux/macOS.
