To: Our Valued Intersil Customers

Subject: Bar Code Label Change for Intersil's UL Recognized Components

This advisory is to inform you that Intersil has implemented the use of a new inner/intermediate bar code label for the packing/shipping of its UL (Underwriters Laboratory) recognized components. The inner/intermediate bar code label has been updated to include the electrical rating and UL recognized component mark. Examples of the current and new bar code labels are included on the next page for reference. Implementation of the new bar code label for packing/shipping began in January 2012.
