When opening the offline help by using one of the following methods, an error message, “This page can’t be displayed” is output, and the contents cannot be displayed.

Note that the searching function of the offline help can be used normally.

- (1) Click on the menu items under the [Contents] of the offline help.
The applicable items are the help of compilers, build tools and license manager.

- (2) Click on the [Help] button or press the [F1] key to open the offline help.

The help of the following products is not subject to this error.

- CS+ Update Manager + V6.00.00 or later
- License Manager

- (3) Use the Help function using the Python Console to open the offline help.

The applicable item is the help of the Python Console.

1.4 Conditions

If you have applied the update program released in September 2018 or the security update program released in October 2018 on Windows 10, Windows 8.1, or Windows 7, an error described in “1.3 Details” occurs.

1.5 Workaround

To avoid this problem, apply one of the following methods.

- (1) For CS+ for CC V4.01.00 and later, use the online help when opening by clicking the [Help] button or [F1] key.

The online help can be accessed from the following menu.

CS+ [Help] menu → [How to Access Help] → [Online]

- (2) For the help which cannot be displayed by clicking the menu item under the [Contents] of the offline help, start the help (.chm) directly from the folders listed below.

1.6 Schedule for Fixing the Problem

- CS+ for CC

This problem will be fixed ^(Note) in CS+ V8.01.00. (Scheduled to be released in January 2019.)

- CS+ for CA,CX

This problem will be fixed in the version after CS+ V8.01.00.

Note: The product will be revised to display the applicable help contents by using the [Help] button and [F1] key.

Note, however, that compilers and build tools cannot display the help contents for the family that is different from the family of the first project they opened.

Furthermore, all help contents cannot be searched and displayed at the same time.

To search and display all the help contents at once, open the help by following the steps below.

1. CS+ [Help] menu → [How to Access Help] → select [Offline]
2. CS+ [Help] menu → select [Help]
